The following shall be the powers and duties of superintendents and invigilators:—

(a) Superintendents.

1. The superintendent will see that the doors of the Examination hall open half an hour before the time specified for the distribution of the question paper on the 1st day and quarter of an hour before on subsequent days.

2. The superintendent will be supplied by the Registrar, before the commencement of the examination, with the list showing the names of candidates, who will appear at his centre of examination and the optional subjects taken up by them and a statement showing the number of candidates appearing in each subject of examination.

3. The superintendent shall not admit any candidate whose name is not shown in the list or allow any candidate to take an optional subject other than that shown against his name, provided that in doubtful cases the superintendent may allow a candidate to take the paper and immediately refer the matter to the Registrar. He may require any candidate to show his roll number and enrolment card.

4. The superintendent shall open the question paper (set for the examination) despatched by the Registrar in a sealed cover in the presence of at least one invigilator). The superintendent and the invigilator (or invigilators) shall certify that the sealed cover was in proper condition and that it was opened in the examination hall at the proper time. The certificate shall be forwarded to the Registrar on the same day.

5. Before the commencement of the examination, the superintendent shall see that the seating arrangement of candidates is satisfactory and that they are seated well apart from each other to prevent collusion.

6. The superintendent shall also see that roll number of each candidate is specified on the table provided to him so that the candidate may readily find out his place. After the end of the examination, a plan of the examination room showing the position of each candidate relative to others, shall be sent to the Registrar on each examination day.

7. The superintendent shall see that a second answer book is not given out to a candidate until the first has been completed, and that the two books are at once stitched together.

8. The superintendent shall remain in the examination hall during the time allotted for each paper; he shall on no account speak or permit any one to speak to a candidate on any subject pertaining to the question paper during the hours of examination except for the purpose of correcting misprints or other errors calculated to mislead the candidates. The superintendent shall, without loss of time, draw the attention of the Registrar to any misprint, error or any ambiguity which may come to his notice, for the information of the examiner.

9. As soon as the time allotted for answering the question paper has expired, the answer-books shall be carefully collected and arranged in numerical order, securely packed and sealed and despatched on the same day by the Superintendent direct to the Registrar reporting names of the absentees with necessary details as to the no. etc. of the answer-books so despatched.

10. The superintendent shall also keep with the answer-books of the candidates two copies of the question paper.

11. The superintendent shall make arrangements as economically as possible consistent with efficiency in all matters involving expenditure of money.

12. The superintendent shall see that no candidate notes answers (or anything else) on the question paper.

13. The superintendent shall see that no candidate is permitted to leave the examination hall without being accompanied by a trustworthy escort to prevent his communication with outsiders and that he does not use his absence from the hall for any purpose other than that for which he had taken leave. The superintendent may fix a time, if necessary, within which the candidate must return to his seat.

14. Ordinarily one invigilator shall be appointed for every 20 candidates but the superintendent will have the option to appear as an additional invigilator to meet any emergency requirements after getting previous approval of the Registrar.

15. The superintendent shall have the power to call upon any candidate appearing at an examination to give his specimen signature for the purpose of identification.

16. The superintendent shall also exercise powers conferred on him under regulation 16.

(b) Invigilators.

1. Every invigilator shall report himself on duty to the superintendent half an hour before the commencement of the examination on the first day and fifteen minutes before on subsequent days.

2. Every invigilator shall remain in the examination hall during the time allotted for each question paper and shall not leave the hall without the permission of the superintendent.

3. The invigilators are expected to help the superintendent in the distribution of question-papers and answer-books, etc., to the candidates and in collecting the answer-books from the candidates at the close of the examination. They shall also help the superintendent in arranging the answer-books for despatch.

4. The invigilators will help the superintendent in preparing a list of the candidates present at the examination and in verifying their identity by comparing their signatures with those on the card of admission.

5. During the course of examination the invigilators shall move about the place and shall not engage themselves in study or conversation.

6. If any candidate is found to resort to unfair means at the examination or to create disturbance or act in any manner so as to cause inconvenience to the other candidates, the invigilator shall at once report the matter to the superintendent.

7. The invigilators shall also bring to the notice of the superintendent any complaints or other difficulties pointed out by any candidate regarding the question-paper set for the examination.

8. The invigilators shall help the superintendent in any other such matter connected with the conduct of the examination as may be required of them.

9. In case an invigilator is unable to be present at the examination hall on any day on account of unavoidable circumstances he shall give at least 24 hours' notice to the superintendent.

10. Invigilators shall work under the directions of the Superintendent and shall bring to his notice without loss of time any violation of rules detected by them.

(b) in sub-clause (a) of clause (iii) the following shall be added at the end, namely:—

"Every card of admission shall be sent to the Principal of the College concerned who will give it to the candidate after the latter has put his signatures thereon."

(c) in clause 6, (i) to item (c) of sub-clause (c) the following para and proviso shall be added, namely:—
